My Cece Bear is turning 1.

Cecilia "the one who sang directly to God" came to this world to show me that a small human being has the power to keep me strong in the face of all the adversities of this crazy past year.

I'm sure God chose one of his best souls, he just decided to add some spice... and the end result is this little human who can make everyone fall in love in the blink of an eye.

God didn't save in the fierceness, persistence and stubbornness. But to ease our many frustrations He complimented her intensity with extra giggles, cuddles, and cuteness.

She talks through her eyes, and you can find peace by looking into them, you can find genuine love. My Cece Bear is a force of nature, she is the storm and the sun after the storm. She brought light into our lives and made us more complete than ever.
